

Article VII, Section 21 [United States' officials ineligible to hold state office.]

No person, while holding any office under the United States' government, shall hold any office under the State government of Utah.